Creating a community garden will help our neighbors come together for one common cause that will unite our block for the betterment of our community. First it will stop people from dumping garbage in front of the lot. Second, starting a community garden will help our neighbors to start a line of communication so we may become familiar with people that live around us, that will create a bond and friendship with each other that will protect and make our community a safer and beautiful place to live.